Cocktail Classics

Aperol Spritz (14)

A classic Italian beverage, perfect for the summer. Aperol bitters with flavour hints of rhubarb & orange and a floral kick paired with sweet Prosecco & soda, served with a nice thick wedge of Orange.

8.50

Pimms (vo) (14)

How quintessential can you get? Imagine the British summertime, tennis on tv, paddling pool full to the brim, and Pimms pouring all around. Did you know Pimms is gin based? Of course you did – you know everything! Served with lemonade and enough fruit to rival a trifle!

Try it with ginger ale for an added kick.

Glass 5.50, Jug 20.00

Bloody Mary (1, 6, 10, 14)

Named after Queen Mary I and her sad demise into the history books at the hands of her sister Queen Lizzie I. A nice glug of Vodka, Big T Tomato Juice (already spiced for your pleasure), a wedge of lemon and a stick of celery finish the deal, much like the axe that chopped off Mary's head in 1558.

Espresso Martini (vo) (14)

Oh, how sophisticated. So bijou. Vodka & coffee liqueur blended with a double espresso, shaken over ice (ask us nicely and we may pull off some cool mixologist moves) and strained into a martini glass.

9.50

5.90

Raspberyllicious

Fancy something sweet & fruity? How about vodka, raspberry puree, lime juice and lemonade poured elegantly over ice, fresh raspberries, a wedge of lime and mint?

Yummers. (Vo)

Garden of Eden (vo)

Imagine walking through a lush wild garden, a babbling brook to your left, birdsong in the trees, and bright sunshine on your skin.

Paradise. Now imagine that image in a glass.

This drink isn't it, but it can get you drunk enough to convince you otherwise. Gin, elderflower syrup, cloudy apple juice, and lime juice over ice, topped with mint & cucumber.
